

FINISHES ITS WORK.

The Populist Convention Nominates Its Ticket and Adjourns.

ALL RENOMINATED SAVE TWO.

D. I. Furbeck for Lieutenant Governor—Amis for Secretary of State—The A. P. A. Resolution.

The Populist state convention concluded its labors last night, having nominated a complete state ticket.

The first nomination was that of Geo. W. Clark of Rice county, the present assistant attorney general, for associate justice of the supreme court.

Three candidates were placed in nomination, M. B. Nicholson, W. C. Webb and George W. Clark. At the conclusion of the roll call on the first ballot, Clark had one more vote than the required number to nominate, and before the vote was announced the nomination was made unanimous.

When nominations for governor were called for, C. L. McKesson of Elk county, made a speech placing Governor L. D. Lewelling in nomination for a second term.

A big easel and a painted portrait of the governor was placed on the front of the platform, and a few minutes later Governor Lewelling himself arrived and delivered a speech prepared for the occasion.

He followed his notes very closely and as he read from the manuscript on the table at his side, his stenographer at another table took down his speech in an effort to make the delegates believe it was an impromptu address.

D. I. Furbeck, of Shawnee county, was nominated for lieutenant governor on the first ballot. There were four candidates before the convention. Percy Daniels, the present lieutenant governor, J. V. Randolph, of Lyon county and D. E. Cole, of Reno county, being the other candidates. Furbeck received most of the votes and when the roll call had proceeded far enough to nominate him he was declared the nominee by acclamation.

When the time came to nominate a candidate for secretary of state but one name was presented that of J. W. Amis, of Smith county; Secretary Osborn had been turned down in the sixth district caucus and his name did not go before the convention. Amis was nominated by acclamation.

Van B. Prather was renominated for auditor of state without a roll call. An attempt was made to rush it through by acclamation, but the Sumner county delegation would not have it that way and they nominated Henry S. Harbaugh of that county. When Barber county had been reached in the roll call and Harbaugh had not received a single vote, his name was withdrawn, notice being given that he would be up as a candidate two years from now. Prather was then renominated without opposition.

State Treasurer W. H. Biddle, Attorney General John T. Little and Superintendent of Instruction H. N. Gaines were nominated for a second term, there being no nominations against them.

Fred J. Close made the speech placing Congressman-at-Large W. A. Harris in nomination for a second term. He asked all the old union soldiers to second the nomination. A few old veterans started to their feet, and one or two attempted to wave the flag, but it was a poor effort. Chairman Dunsmore did not like it, and he leaned over the stage with his arms in the air like the wings of a windmill and shouted, "Get up, you old vets! get up there!" This did the business, and most of the old soldiers got on their feet and cheered.

The nomination was then declared unanimous, although like on every other vote of that kind during the afternoon and evening session when nominations were being made, a large number of delegates kept their mouths shut and not a few voted "no."

James Gray, an Osage county miner, called out that he voted "No" as a protest against the treatment the miners had received at the hands of this administration. He was afterwards asked to make a speech and explain the grievances of the miners, which he did.

He said they all thought Governor Lewelling was a fine man, but they did not like his advisors, and in particular Attorney General John T. Little was obnoxious because he had failed to enforce the screen law and other laws in the interest of the miners and against the corporations.

G. C. Clemens introduced the expected resolution demanding an investigation of the pensioned officials and the removal of Warden Chase, but it was tabled. The resolution read:

Resolved, By the People's party in convention assembled, that we demand of Governor L. D. Lewelling that he immediately proceed to investigate the charges filed against the management of the state penitentiary, to the end that the party may be able to elect honest or dishonest appointees, if any such have been elevated to positions.

Clemens said he knew the friends of the administration would object to it, so he wanted to withdraw the resolution, but the second would not consent, and it was tabled.

When the business was concluded Ben Rich read two telegrams which he said had been delayed, but which most people believed had been suppressed, asking the convention to be true to the suffrage amendment.

Several Populist ladies, including Mrs. John G. Otis, Mrs. C. B. Hoffman, Mrs. William Stryker and Mrs. Ruggies of Emporia thanked the delegates for adopting the suffrage plank. W. J. Featherstone, the first and only Populist congressman from Arkansas, who is here on business connected with the North & South railroad, made a short speech.

When everybody was ready to go home G. C. Clemens ushered a man to the platform who looked like a victim of a sawmill accident and astonished the convention by introducing "General" Henry Bennett of the commonwealth army. Ben nett made a speech and a collection was taken for him amounting to $102, which will enable him and General Artz to get out of Kansas City. The convention adjourned sine die at 10:15 p. m.

AGAINST THE A. P. A.

A Resolution Adopted by the Populist Convention.

Near the close of the afternoon session Judge J. S. McDonald, a Catholic of Bourbon county, introduced an anti-A. P. A. resolution, which read as follows: The People's party of Kansas, having learned with deep regret that a new element has risen in our country, and we believe for the purpose of creating discord in the ranks of our party, and for the purpose of disrupting all labor organizations, its purpose being to array one class of citizens against another on account of religious faith.

Resolved, That the People's party, as its name implies, is the party of the people, and hence the enemy of oppression and tyranny in every form, and we do most emphatically condemn such conduct as unchristian, un-American, and is totally opposed to the spirit of the constitution of our country and we pledge our best efforts to defeat the purpose of such organizations and to protect as far as we are able every individual of every nationality, religious creed and political belief in his sacred right to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience.

Though the resolution does not name the A. P. A. it is undoubtedly aimed at that organization as it was introduced by a Catholic and signed by Patrick Gorman of Bourbon county, presumably another member of the same church.

It was moved that the motion be laid on the table and the chairman said, "All those in favor of laying this resolution on the table raise your hands."

The vote was taken by districts and stood 318 for and 285 against. The motion to adopt the resolution was then carried with few nays. Judge McDonald danced around with delight while Patrick Gorman, his associate, waved his hands and shouted.

IN A PLACE OF HONOR.

The Old Liberty Bell Given a Special Pavilion.

PHILADELPHIA, June 14.—The old liberty bell has been taken down from the place where it has been suspended in Independence hall and placed in the handsome square pavilion made of quartered oak and glass.

It is situated now in the middle of the east room occupying seventy-two square feet of floor space. It is the most striking of all the relics by reason of its magnificent house. The case is made of selected quartered white oak, is five feet one inch square and ten feet high, with a front of twelve feet in height. On each of the four sides is a large plate glass, over four feet wide and seven feet high in the center.

At each corner is a bronze pillar surmounted by neat carved work, while over each of the glass sides is an arch with the names of the thirteen original states carved, that of Pennsylvania being on a keystone. The bell and its column rest on a truck which fits snugly inside the case and appears to be simply a floor.

The top of the truck is of polished quartered oak and is four feet square. Beneath are four-tired wheelers. The supporters are on the north and south sides, so as to give a clear view of the bell from the entrance. On the north side, the whole side of the case is made by a single open and a key to it is held by the man in charge of the room. The rail on that side is left unfastened, so that in case of fire, it can be thrown out quickly, the door opened and the truck with the bell pulled out of the building.

FOR KIDNAPPING.

Nate Williams Takes His Grandchild Away From His Daughter.

Nate Williams, a colored man, was arrested by the police last night on a charge of "kidnapping."

The specifications of the charges are that he took the little three-year-old girl belonging to his daughter, Ada Burch. The case will be tried before a justice of the peace as a state case.

He Threw a Rock.

Sam Freidberg, who keeps a small jewelry shop on Kansas avenue, below Fourth street, was bothered by a small boy loitering in front of his window this morning. He told the boy to move on, but instead of obeying orders the boy picked up a piece of vitrified brick and tossed it at the irate jeweler in such a manner that a deep gash was cut in the back of his head. Dr. C. S. McClintock dressed the wound. The boy has not been arrested.

REPUBLICANS TALK.

What They Think of the Populist Endorsement

OF WOMAN SUFFRAGE IN KANSAS.

Most of Them Say It Injures the Cause—Some Think Suffrage May Be Won.

A JOURNAL reporter has interviewed several Republicans on the adoption of the woman suffrage plank by the Populists. The interviews are given below:

Major Tom Anderson said: "The amendment will be defeated. I am disgusted with the silly action of the women before the Populist convention. I voted for the amendment in 1887, but I am against it now and will do all I can to defeat it and there are a great many Republicans who feel just as I do on the question. The women will be sorry for their action before this thing is over."

Ex-Judge Guthrie: "I was somewhat surprised at the action of the Populist convention. They have made a mistake, for it will injure both the party and the suffrage cause. Now, what I want to see is ex-Gov. Glick, Miss Anthony and Mrs. Lease march up the street together in procession under one banner, and then I will not have another word to say. Republicans are satisfied with the action of the Populists."

E. A. Wagener: "I am afraid the suffrage cause has suffered much injury. A great many Republicans will not vote for the amendment who had intended to do so. I will vote and work for it, however, for I am an ardent suffragist. I promised the women that I would go into the campaign for them, and I am still ready to redeem my promise. I think they did an unwise thing in seeking Populist endorsement, and I think the Populists have made a grave mistake in giving endorsement. I believe that the amendment will carry, if the campaign is properly conducted."

Col. Geo. W. Veale: "I hardly know what to say about the result of the adoption of the plank, for I see that it will work both ways. The women have thrown the responsibilities of their campaign on the Populists, and the party will receive an advantage. On the other hand the Democrats will drop out of the Populist party and will refuse to vote the ticket on account of the suffrage plank."

L. E. Lambert, of Emporia: "The adoption of the plank will have a tendency to hurt the Populists for the Democrats have always opposed suffrage. It will hurt the amendment for there are a great many Republicans who will say that it has become a party measure and will not vote for it. The Republican speakers will not oppose it on the stump from the standpoint that it is not a partisan measure."

Capt. P. H. Coney: "The Populists have lost the Democratic support by their action and they will be snowed under so deep that they will never be able to dig their way out. The amendment will also be lost because the women have made it a party measure and Republicans won't vote anything that savors of Populism."

T. E. Bowman: "The adoption of a plank was the great victory of the campaign for the suffragists. It will bring the question before the people who would not attend woman suffrage meetings. It will also compel the Republicans to lead to the front and to the measure more generally than they would otherwise have done. The suffrage amendment is pretty certain to carry and both parties will be anxious to get as much of the new vote as possible. The chances of Republican success will be lessened unless they stand by the women of the state, who always vote for the best moral interests of the people."

TO PUT IN A GALLERY.

A Scheme to Send 3,500 People in Hamilton Hall.

To the Editor of the State Journal: Sir—Before inviting to Topeka new enterprises, would it not be well to get a little encouragement to those now established? In the face of an expenditure of $30,000 by Dr. Hamilton to meet the demand for a convention hall, another cry goes up for something larger. It would be better, it seems to me, instead of raising a fund for a new "wigwam," to encourage Dr. Hamilton to carry out his first intention of putting in a gallery that will add 1,200 to the seating capacity of his hall. This hall is constructed for a gallery, but the doctor was unable to add it at the time he built.

As will be remembered, the late Allen Stiles asked for $10,000 to put up an auditorium. The project was not carried out because the project was too large for the people as much if built. Would it not be better to raise $1,000 for this gallery? What would have been done with the two last conventions had we not had Hamilton hall. Representative hall seats about the number that would be accommodated in the gallery, and with a gallery, this hall would be adequate for the needs of Kansas conventions for years to come. With the assistance named, Dr. Hamilton will have a gallery in his hall before another convention meets. Let us encourage what enterprises we have before inviting new ones.

The present lack of good ventilation, which is the principal defect of Hamilton hall, can also be easily remedied with ventilating fans that will take out the warm air, and make it as comfortable as any one could desire.

LAURA JOHNS' BADGE.

It Was For Suffrage Not the People's Party.

The JOURNAL wishes to correct a statement generally circulated yesterday, that Mrs. Laura Johns wore a People's party badge after the Populist convention had adopted the woman suffrage plank.

Mrs. Johns pinned a yellow badge upon her dress, but it was an equal suffrage not a People's party badge. As both ribbons were the same color, the mistake was easily made. Mr. Hamlin Garland who saw Mrs. Johns wearing the emblem, supposed that it was a Populist badge and so informed a reporter.
